Herbalife Philippines Is the Official Nutrition Partner Of the Philippine Volcanoes

MANILA, PHILIPPINES (APRIL 2017) – Herbalife, a global nutrition company, proudly announces it has become the official nutrition partner of one of the most exciting teams in the local sports scene, the Philippine Rugby Football Team - Philippine Volcanoes.

Herbalife Philippines General Manager Rosalio T. Valenzuela and Philippine Rugby Football Union (PRFU) President Rick Santos led the contract signing, at Herbalife Philippines' corporate office. Also present to witness the momentous event were Herbalife Philippines' management team; PRFU's William Bailey (treasurer), Ada Milby (secretary-general), Jake Robrigado Letts (National Teams Head), and national team players' Justin Villazor Coveney and Acee San Juan.

As part of the forged partnership, Herbalife Nutrition will provide its products to the athletes of the Philippine Volcanoes, including the recently-launched sports nutrition line Herbalife24 F1 Sports and Rebuild Strength.

“This is another milestone for Herbalife Philippines. We are extremely proud to provide the team with the nutrition support as they compete locally and outside of the country,” said Rosalio T. Valenzuela, General Manager of Herbalife Philippines. “This partnership also exemplifies our commitment to a healthy, active life, supported by good nutrition. Together with the Philippine Volcanoes, we are confident that we can inspire more people to live healthier.”

The Philippine Volcanoes is one of the Philippines’ most successful national sports teams. Just recently, they bested 10 other countries to win the top prize in the Asian Rugby Sevens Trophy Series competition in Qatar. Currently, the team is ranked first in the Southeast Asia after winning the gold medal in the 2015 Southeast Asian Games (SEA Games).

“Our partnership with Herbalife Nutrition is inspired by our shared commitment towards improving lives through an active lifestyle and healthy well-being. The collaboration provides a much-needed boost to the development and promotion of Philippine Rugby, as the PRFU focuses on grassroots development and defending the Men’s and Women’s 7s medals at the SEA Games,” said Santos.

Herbalife Philippines General Manager, Rosalio T. Valenzuela and Philippine Rugby Football Union Inc. President Rick Santos sealed the new sports partnership via a contract signing ceremony held at Herbalife Philippines’ corporate office.
